LOCAL DELIVERY.—No delivery is attempted on board Ship, at the Peak, Kowloon, Aberdeen, &c., nor at any private house (even though named in the address) when there is a place of business nearer, at which delivery can be effected.

The above Regulation is not new, but has been the invariable rule of the Post Office for many years. Considerable efforts have been made to secure its being generally understood. To prove it, however, if possible, any further disappointment in the matter, it will appear permanent, on the Mail Lists issued twice every day from the U. S. Press Office.

connection with this paper is the one published twice each day in our Extra, which is always corrected to a much later hour than that given below.
